

Classic Albums Live performs Crime of the Century (Supertramp)
 Saturday, September 7, 2024 @ 8PM | Carpenter Theatre @ Dominion Energy Center | 600 E. Grace Street

This album was everywhere. Car stereos, parking lots, basement parties. People used to think Supertramp were Canadian, and they might as well have been as they became popular in Canada before the states. The album is sonic beauty. Picking up musically where The Beatles left off and lyrically equaling Dylan for poetry. There's a nuance to this album that is difficult to perform. Almost like an invisible velvet rope. If you know you know. Step into the depth of the early seventies. This album defines that moment in time. All the musicians are excited about taking on Supertramp. CAL welcomes the challenge. There's a reason why you never heard Supertramp performed by cover bands, it's too difficult. But CAL got it. Note for Note. Anything else would be a crime.
